

Pretend that you have been asked to deliver your mediated presentation to a live audience, and are preparing for that presentation. You know that it will be followed by a Question & Answer session. As a well-prepared communicator, you know that practicing for Q&A sessions is an important part of preparing for the presentation. Identify 5 questions that you think your audience might ask, and then think about how you would answer them.

Record yourself answering the questions according to the principles outlined in the lesson. Do not read the questions and answers from this worksheet. Submit the recording on the Learning Management System.

Question 1: Your question here.

Your response here.

Question 2: Your question here.

Your response here.

Question 3: Your question here.

Your response here.

Question 4: Your question here.

Your response here.

Question 5: Your question here.

Your response here.