

Answer the questions below.

In class, we discussed some cues of authority, but there are many others. How is authority communicated using space? Time? What other ways is authority communicated?

Your response here

What social positions do you occupy that come with authority?

Your response here

What are the cues that signify those positions?

Your response here

How can we identify times when we need to question authority?

Your response here