

Identify one group that you belong to which has been through all five stages of the Tuckman Model. Answer the questions below while thinking about that group:

Which group was it?

Your response

Describe one specific event that happened during the forming stage of group development in this group. How do you know the group was in the forming stage at this time?

Your response

Describe one specific event that happened during the storming stage of group development in this group. How do you know the group was in the storming stage at this time?

Your response

Describe one specific event that happened during the norming stage of group development in this group. How do you know the group was in the norming stage at this time?

Your response

Describe one specific event that happened during the performing stage of group development in this group. How do you know the group was in the performing stage at this time?

Your response

Describe one specific event that happened during the adjourning stage of group development in this group. How do you know the group was in the adjourning stage at this time?

Your response