Fill in the supporting evidence for one of your main points for your next major presentation. Make sure that you write out the citation information for that evidence the way you will say it in the presentation. Mark the type of evidence, form of evidence, and type of source for each supporting point. Ensure that your evidence for each main point is diverse.

Main Point 1: A main point that supports the thesis for your next presentation.

A. Supporting evidence for your main point, including the citation information written as you would say it in the presentation.

Type of Evidence: Example / Narrative / Testimony / Fact / Statistic
Type of Source: Primary / Secondary

B. Another piece of supporting evidence for your main point with citation information

Type of Evidence: Example / Narrative / Testimony / Fact / Statistic
Type of Source: Primary / Secondary

C. (If needed to fully diversify evidence or to support the main point)

Type of Evidence: Example / Narrative / Testimony / Fact / Statistic
Type of Source: Primary / Secondary